RUNNING BATTLE FOUGHT

First Violence in Strike of Teamsters at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, August 13 .- A running fight between 500 strikers and sympathizers on one side and three nonunion drivers and a score of police men on the other, which terminated in a riot in front of the St. Louis Transfer Company's stable to-night, strike of 1,500 transfer drivers and chauffeurs which began here to-day.

Teamsters employed by St. Louis transfer companies struck for higher wages and shorter hours to-day and brought about a partial paralysis in the movement of freight. The transfer companies made as effect to all fer companies made no effort to fill the places of the strikers, announcing an offer of minor concessions which they asked the men to consider.
